Compliance with Supervision Conditions and Prior Interventions:

Mr. Tharpe began his term of supervised release on October 25, 2012. The terms of his supervised release conditions were explained to the defendant.

The defendant previously resided at SafeHarbor Halfway House, Nashville, Tennessee, but was removed from that program in April 2012, due to consuming alcohol. The defendant informed the probation officer that he has been residing at the Nashville Rescue Mission most days. When not at the Rescue Mission, the defendant reported he stays on the "Dock" at the Habitat For Humanity building. Mr. Tharpe reported he would like to secure his own residence, but has not been able to do so due to his inability to find employment.

Due to the defendant's failure to maintain contact with the probation officer, he has been placed on a weekly reporting schedule until further notice. This officer asked the defendant if he was interested in halfway house placement at Diersen Charities, to which he responded he did not wish to reside there. The defendant stated he is diligently seeking employment so that he may secure his own home and resume paying his restitution.

U.S. Probation Officer Recommendation:

The defendant has been admonished by the probation officer and informed that it is imperative that he comply with the terms of his supervised release.

At this time, the probation officer is requesting that no additional action be taken by the Court. The probation officer will continue to work with the defendant and assist him in reestablishing compliance with his supervised release conditions. The probation officer will keep the court apprised of any significant matters.

The U. S. Attorney's Office has been advised of the above noncompliance.

Kenneth Parham
